GOVERNOR DECLARES BANK HOLIDAY

Japanese Forces Nearing Capital Of Jehol Province

DEFENDERS MOVE LAUNCHED TO CHANGE ORANGE COUNTY WATER BILL

Attackers Predict Fall of Chengtehfu in Time to Celebrate "Army Day"

BOMBS FOLLOW ARMY

Picked Chinese Block Way Into Capital and Defense Will Be Stiffest

LINGYUAN, Manchuria, March
2.—(UP)—Harassed by bitterly fought rear guard engagements, victorious Japanese troops converged today from six directions upon Chengtehfu, capital of Jehol, in the final phase of the war for subjugation of the province.

Flushed with successes in the Lingyuan sector, the Japanese predicted confidently they would take Chengtehfu in time to celebrate "army day," March 10, anniversary of the capture of Mukden in the Russo-Japanese war.

Opposing the main Japanese army, however, were picked Chinese fighters ordered to the sector by General Chang Hsueh-Liang. The 1st and 10th divisions, it was reported, were sent to the front to stem the Nipponese tide.

Between the advancing Japanese and their goal lies 75 miles of rough terrain, stoutly defended by reserve forces, most of them well trained, under command of the most efficient officers in the Chinese army.

The Japanese were further hampered because the pressing necessity of pushing on left them without adequate communication lines for food and munitions.

Jubilant Japanese commanders told the troops in bulletins today that the road to Chengtehfu was now easily open—that the Chinese were fleeing, demoralized;
that the secondary Chinese defenses were smashed; that the key cities to Chengtehfu were now broken and their defenders were demoralized; that the "death stand" of the defenders had been defeated.

Bombing planes followed up the successes of the Japanese army, but the attempt to "mop up" the district was difficult because of the tenacity of Chinese contingents remaining behind.

The Japanese position at Chingfeng, captured yesterday by the invaders, suddenly became insecure today, when Chinese forces from the mountains, under command of General Feng Chen-Hai, counter-attacked General Mogi's detachment, then in control of the city.

Chinese headquarters refused to admit any serious reverses in the Lingyuan sector, and said today their secondary defenses were not shattered, as claimed by the Japanese.

Reinforcements now approaching the Japanese main army will have to move along roads dominated by hidden Chinese defenders, the Chinese officers declared.

It was admitted that Japanese detachments were in control of Taipingfang and Lingtung.

SEN. T. J. WALSH DIES SUDDENLY ABOARD TRAIN

Appointee to Cabinet Passes While Returning to Capital With Bride

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., March
2.—(UP)—Sen. Thomas J.
Walsh, 73-year-old political veteran who was attorney general-designate in the new Roosevelt cabinet, died suddenly aboard an Atlantic coast line train today while enroute to Washington with his Cuban bride.

Physicians attributed his death to a "heart condition or a hemorrhage of the brain."

Senator Walsh was taken ill at Daytona Beach, Fla., night before last, when he suffered an attack of indigestion, but his condition had not appeared serious.

Mrs. Walsh awakened about 6:30 a.m. today to find the senator lying on the floor of their drawing room unconscious. He apparently had arisen to take medicine or a drink of orange juice.

Mrs. Walsh called train attendants, who stopped the train at Wilson, only a few miles away.
Dr. M. A. Pittman of the Moore-herring hospital, Wilson, boarded the train, but found that Senator Walsh already was dead.

Mrs. Walsh, who was Senora
Maria Nieves Tuftin, widow of a Cuban sugar magnate, until her marriage to Senator Walsh in Havana last Saturday, became hysterical. Dr. Pittman gave her a sedative.

The body was taken to Rocky Mount, 18 miles away, the next stop on the Atlantic coast line.

Mrs. Walsh rested at the Ricks hotel, where she regained her composure though she remained
"very emotional," Dr. Pittman said.

The body was embalmed here.
A nurse, Miss Leona Boswell, was attending Mrs. Walsh. Mrs.
Walsh also was attended by her Cuban maid.

Funeral services probably will be held in Washington.

BRITISH BUDGET IS MADE PUBLIC TODAY

LONDON, Mar. 2.—(UP)—The British war department today presented a tentative budget calling for an increase of 1,462,000 pounds sterling over its 1932 expenditures.

Presenting the estimate, Lord Haldimand, secretary of state for war, pointed out that the economy measures of the past year have "involved a definite loss of efficiency and could not be repeated without serious consequences."

Today's estimate calls for 7,950-000 pounds sterling, as compared with 36,458,000 appropriated for 1932.

Furniture, Fred H. Rice & Son, Swarabergers, most of the merchants in the Grand Central Market, Firestone, Turner Radio, J. C.
Penney company and Famous Department store.

It was the expressed opinion of the board as a part of the motion that all investigations and inquiries have failed to indicate any disturbance or critical condition in the banks of Santa Ana and that the cause of the proclamation did not grow out of requests made by local bankers and that the proclamation came as a surprise to Santa Ana bank officials.

To facilitate business, Brown said the board's action requested that all purchasers of merchandise use small change as available, so that the merchants' supply of change would not be immediately exhausted. The board also proposed to employers of labor that the Fact Finding Committee in Senate Files Additional Report Today

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 2.—
Payment of interest and redemption on outstanding night-way bonds from gasoline tax funds is recommended in a report of the senate fact-finding committee today. The report opposed diversion of the gas tax money for other purposes.

Other recommendations in the report which covered the department of public works were:

Reduction of administration expenses of approximately 25 per cent.

Appropriation for the division of architecture be reduced from $234-750 to a sum not to exceed 6 per cent of the cost of new construction during the biennium.

Reduction in the number of highway districts from ten to five.

Discontinue publication of the monthly bulletin of the department of public works.

In a report covering the activities of the board of state harbor commissioners the committee recommended:

All employees of the commission, except the executive secretary be placed under civil service.

Cost of operation of the port of San Francisco reduced from $2-500,000 to $1,750,000 per biennium.

Employees of the commission be subjected to general salary reduction plan recommended for state employees.

Duties of pilot commission to be turned over to the harbor commission. (Abolition of the pilot commission was recommended in a previous report.)

ROOSEVELT OFF TO WASHINGTON THIS EVENING

Party Arrives Tonight in Capital Preparatory to Inauguration

NEW YORK, March 2.—(UP)— President Elect Roosevelt, saddened by the loss of one of his most stalwart cabinet members only two days before he takes office, today described the death of Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana as a grievous loss to the entire country as well as to the new administration.

Mr. Roosevelt completed his packing and his pre-inaugural business in New York and he and his party were to entrain for Washington at 4 p. m. He was scheduled to arrive in Washington at 9:15. He planned to go at once to the Mayflower hotel, where he will live until he moves into the White House Saturday.

When the train rolls out of the terminal among those aboard will be:

Mrs. James Roosevelt, his mother; James Roosevelt and Betsy, son and daughter-in-law; his two sons, John and Franklin, Jr.; Col.

become assistant secretary of the interior; Mr. and Mrs. Woodin, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Dern. Dern

of war.

INAUGURAL PLANS TO BE CARRIED OUT

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(UP)—
Inaugural plans will be carried out as originally contemplated despite the death of Senator Thomas J. Walsh, who was to have been the Roosevelt attorney general.

"We are all grieved at the loss of Senator Walsh and we all had the greatest admiration and respect for him," said Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman of the inaugural committee.

"So far as our plans are concerned, Senator Walsh died as a member of the senate and there is nothing we can do but continue as he would have wished us to."

The men are Jesse, Dan and Archie Shreve, San Diego brokers.
The indictment, returned in Tuc-son, Ariz., accused them of an attempt to defraud Fred Sweetland
of Arizona in connection with the operations of the Security Building & Loan company of Tucson
and Phoenix, now in the hands of a receiver, it was understood.

J. G. Cash and W. O. Evans,
business associates of the Shreves,
also were indicted, and arraigned
with them before United States
Commissioner P. N. Andrews. Cash
gained his liberty on $15,000 bond,
while Evans was required to deposit $25,000.

BEVERLY HILLS, March
2.—(To the Editor of the Register: ) I hear the inauguration is to be put off three weeks on account of the budget.

Every time Detroit outgrows Henry Ford he has to go in and save 'em again. He is going to have a bank where you can leave your money and come back and find it before the banker does.

Al Smith told exactly what his ideas were on every important question. No wonder he can't be elected. Imagine a man in public office that everybody knew where he stood? We couldn't call him a statesman, we would call him a curiosity.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

Three Cities Seek Relief From Taxes

Members of M. W. D. Facing Double Taxation
Under New Measure

A DEFINITE movement was afoot today to change provisions of the new Orange county water bill to equalize tax rates to permit exclusion of Santa Ana, Anaheim and Fullerton, members of the Metropolitan Water district, from taxes on importation of water from other areas and sewage reclamation, it was learned today from an authoritative source.

While the three cities have not yet expressed a formal objection to being taxed a third time for water, it is understood that the contemplated change will embody the principle that the cities which are taxed to import water from the Colorado river should be exempt from importation of water costs and sewage reclamation costs.

Answering a question which was raised today, A. W. Rutan, water attorney who is called the "father" of the new water bill declared that the directors of the proposed new water district would have no power to control Metropolitan Water district water or any other water interests within the county, already organized.

Committee Meet
"Water committees from Santa Ana, Anaheim and Fullerton met yesterday afternoon in the Anaheim city hall to discuss the bill and to question Attorney Rutan and Paul Bailey, engineer, concerning certain provisions of the act.

The questions mainly concerned the status of the three cities in the Metropolitan Water district in case of importation of water for domestic or irrigation use.

THREE SAN DIEGANS UNDER INDICTMENT

SAN DIEGO, Calif., March 2.—
(UP)—Three brothers, former associates in a real estate venture with Alexander Pantages, millionaire theater man, were at liberty on $25,000 bond each today following their arrest and arraignment on a federal indictment charging them with use of the mails to defraud.

The men are Jesse, Dan and Archie Shreve, San Diego brokers.
The indictment, returned in Tuc-son, Ariz., accused them of an attempt to defraud Fred Sweetland
of Arizona in connection with the operations of the Security Building & Loan company of Tucson
and Phoenix, now in the hands of
a receiver, it was understood.

business associates of the Shreves,
also were indicted, and arraigned
with them before United States
Commissioner P. N. Andrews. Cash
gained his liberty on $15,000 bond,
while Evans was required to deposit $25,000.

CONDEMNED FELON ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

FOLSOM PRISON, Calif., March
2.—(UP)—Facing execution tomorrow for the murder of a San Francisco policeman, Peter Farrington made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide last night,
federal officials revealed today.

Farrington, Warden Court Smith reported, attempted to cut his wrist with a nail he had found in his prison cell.

The attempted suicide was discovered this morning when the turnkey transferred Farrington from his regular cell to the death cell in preparation for the hanging tomorrow.

The turnkey noticed blood on Farrington's wrist and asked the condemned man what had happened. Farrington said he had "scratched himself."

RELEASED
Chas. Boettcher, Denver millionaire, who was released by kidnapers after they had received $60,000 ransom.

BOETTCHER IS GIVEN RELEASE BY KIDNAPERS

Ransom of $60,000 Paid
as Police Take Up
Chase for Abductors

DENVER, March 2.—(UP)—The ransom to which Charles Boet-tcher, 41, was subjected during sixteen days as the prisoner of kidnapers today spurred hot pursuit of the abductors who fled with $60,000 ransom after releasing the young millionaire here last night.

Western justice was aroused by the relentless spirit of early day vigilantes asserted itself as individuals organized near Eaton organized parties to join forces with Colorado and Wyoming sheriffs officers to trace the outlaws.

Less than two hours after Boet-tcher was released a hot trail was picked up near Barr where Deputy Sheriff Charles Williams of Adams county and two volunteers battled two men believed to have been the fleeing kidnapers.

Fifteen shots were fired at the speeding suspects. Some were believed to have taken effect. The men returned the fire, but escaped in their dark sedan.

A few hours later the men roared into Greeley and ground to a stop. Patrolman Claus and Winn rushed toward them in a police cruiser. The men, who had startled to alight, fired at the patrolmen, and were answered with a barage.

One of the suspects appeared to have been wounded as he scrambled back to the sedan as it gathered speed.

The officers pursued. The chase led northward on the Cheyenne highway. Gradually the faster machine of the men in flight pulled away.

Trail Is Lost
Just before the Wyoming capital was reached the officers were outdistanced. A second time the trail was lost.

Authorities believed the men doubled back toward Colorado.
Sheriff George Carroll of Cheyenne directed deputies and volunteers who proceeded southward. Detectives J. S. Turner, O. A. Carter

CHINESE STRANDED IN NOGALES CITY

NOGALES, Ariz., Mar. 2.—(UP)—
Dust-stained and woe-begone, 165 Chinese were confined at the United States immigration cantonment here today, virtual "men without a country," unwanted by either Mexico or the United States.

The Chinese were driven from the states of Sonora and Sinaloa, Mex., by attacks of Mexicans, angered at the present economic unrest. Many were accompanied by their Mexican wives and half-caste children. All were virtually without funds.

Daily immigration patrols captured the orientals, fleeing across the border into the United States.
Sixteen were taken into custody yesterday. The United States government must bear the cost of deporting them to China.

THREE DAY MORATORIUM DECREED AFTER PARLEY WITH LEADING BANKERS

Emergency Legislation Is Asked by Governor in Message to Solons

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 2.—
(UP)—Immediate emergency legislation conferring protection to California banks against heavy withdrawals within and without the state was asked of the state legislature today by Governor James Rolph Jr.

The governor submitted a brief message to the house and senate, giving formal notification of the three-day bank holiday.

"I have taken this action," he said, "for the reasons stated in my proclamation, but principally because of my desire to conserve and protect the interests of the depositors... as well as the banking institutions themselves."

The national situation has reacted adversely to California since, as I am informed, large amounts of money are being withdrawn from the state to the detriment of our business life."

Governor Rolph revealed that proposed legislation would give banks the optional power to limit withdrawals.

"Fifteen other states with bank moratoriums are drawing on California for their money," the governor explained. "Now was the time to act. The old saying applies: 'No use locking the stable door after the horse gets out.'"

Legal Holiday
The three day moratorium is legal holiday as any other. In general courts, schools and other public functions are officially closed.

The attorney general's office was preparing to issue a statement in which the holiday effect of the moratorium would be explained.
Assemblymen in the house openly asked whether or not the legislature could convene, even if it so willed, during a legal holiday.

Draft of the proposed protective laws were expected to arrive this afternoon. They will be introduced in both houses as rapidly as possible. Speediest action will be sought.

Governor Rolph indicated the holiday had been under consideration several days. Yesterday he went to San Francisco by airplane.
There he conferred with bankers and his friend and adviser, Theo-

EMERGENCY LOANS ARE MADE BY R. F. C.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(UP)—
The Reconstruction Finance corporation today granted emergency relief loans to Texas, Arizona, Oregon, New Mexico and Montana.

Oregon obtained $32,500. Previously Oregon had been granted $1-945,000.

Arizona received $210,513 for use in fourteen political subdivisions during March. Arizona previously obtained $874,700.

Montana was granted $826,140 for use in 42 counties. Previously Montana had been advanced $1-183,990.

New Mexico obtained $150,350 for use in 31 counties. Previously
New Mexico received $172,000.

S. A. BANK OFFICIALS CLAIM HOLIDAY WILL BENEFIT ALL

THE THREE-DAY bank holiday will prove to be of great benefit, according to the opinions of local bank officials, expressed today.

"The bank holiday," A. I.
McIntosh, executive vice president of the Commercial National bank, said today, "will no doubt prove beneficial to all concerned."
The fact that California has fallen in line with many other states in a move in the right direction, in that it will have an effect to bring about remedial legislation which will have a distinct effect toward writing "finis" to the depression.

"As far as the local banks are concerned, I am sure the three-day holiday is unnecessary. The bank over which I have charge is in splendid condition and is in a position to meet all demands made upon it."

"It is probable that banks may open even today in a limited capacity to care for safety deposit customers and to make cash."

LOCAL MERCHANTS TO TAKE BANK CHECKS ON PURCHASES

THROUGH THE Santa Ana Business Men's association, merchants of Santa Ana announced today that the stores will remain open and the usual facilities of business will be afforded to customers, regardless of the three-day bank holiday proclamation by Governor Rolph.

A motion to this effect, was unanimously passed by the board of directors of the Business Men's association at an emergency meeting this morning, according to Phil M. Brown, secretary-manager of the association.

Practically all Santa Ana merchants are planning to accept checks in payment of purchases of merchandise during the holiday period, a survey made today reveals. Individual merchants and stores who have made definite announcements in this regard in-

BOETTCHER IS GIVEN RELEASE FOR BUILDING BY KIDNAPERS

and John O'Donnell, of Denver, carried an automobile load of machine guns and rifles northward for the use of searchers. Every road was guarded.

Boettcher indicated his belief that he had been held in Wyoming. He was set free last night in suburban Denver by two men who seized him from the side of his young wife the night of Feb. 12, and drove all night and all day before placing him in a musty cellar blindfolded with adhesive tape.

Except for a swollen face as a result of the blindfold, Boettcher was none the worse. He first telephoned members of his family, then police, and two friends picked him up in their car, apparently by prearrangement.

Tells Story

Taken first to the home of Sidney Sinsheimer, president of the American Beet Sugar company, Boettcher told his story to his father, Chief of Police A. T. Clark and a few friends.

"The abduction," he said "blindfolded me within half a block after we left my home on the night of the kidnapping."

"Keep your mouth shut and we won't hurt you," they told me. We drove all night and all the next day. I do not know what direction we took and I cannot tell whether we went into the mountains or over flat country.

"It was late in the evening when we arrived at a house. I was placed in a room, which I think was in a basement, because the air and floor were damp and there was a musty smell."

"On the trip we had only sandwiches to eat, which the men had brought along. When they stopped for gasoline, one would stay with me in the weeds or hedges some distance away and the other would take the car to the filling station."

"The men spoke good English and were agreeable enough. They brought my meals to me, knocking on the door with the butt of a revolver which was the signal for me to replace my blindfold."

"I never was allowed to get a glimpse of the men. When I wrote the notes they took me to a table on which was a lamp and stood behind me while I wrote what they said."

Start for Home

"Tuesday night the men put me in their automobile again and we started the trip which resulted in my release."

Dr. John Foster and Norman Barwise, friends, took young Boettcher from the Sinsheimer home and spirited him secretly through the garage entrance of his own home, the exact place from which he was kidnapped.

A joyful family reunion followed as Boettcher embraced his wife, an expectant mother.

After a hot bath and a sedative, Boettcher went to bed.

hops, is a wise policy and a sound principle.

"I think it should be made clear and emphasized that proposed legislation permitting banks, when necessary, to restrict and control withdrawal of deposits, does not mean that all banks, or very many banks, will avail themselves of the local rights that would be thus afforded."

"Probably nine banks out of ten, or even a much greater number than that, when they open next Monday, will transact business just as they always have, permitting all depositors to withdraw

A. Cavalli, manager of the association, said today: "Hugh J. Lowe, Vandermaet & Co., Richard A. Bradford, Gem Hosiery Shop, Alice A. Peterson Shoes, Fred Newcomb Shoes, Bob Schilling Shoes, Jerry Hall, Ivis Stein, V. L. Monty, Eugene Kahen, Charles Chamberlin & Co. and numerous other merchants."

The Santa Ana Merchants' association did not make any statement regarding the bank situation in this city, but President Walter Swanberger said, "There was no reason for any undue apprehension or hysteria on the part of our citizens."

Most of the merchants will accept checks, from customers they know, and there will be no inconvenience caused to anyone that wants to purchase merchandise in our city, Cavalli declared.

ROLOPH CLOSING ALL BANKS IN STATE 3 DAYS

"Now, therefore, I, James Rolph Jr., acting in my capacity as governor of the State of California, under authority by law in me invested, do hereby proclaim each of the following days, to-wit: Thursday, March 2, 1933, Friday, March 3, 1933, and Saturday, March 4, 1933, to be public holidays, said days to be recognized, claimed and treated to have the same effect as other legal holidays under the laws of the state."

May Place Limit

"In witness whereof, I, James Rolph Jr., governor of the State of California, acting in my capacity as such, have hereunto affixed my hand at the executive office in Sacramento, California, on this first day of March, 1933, and have likewise caused the great seal of the State of California to be affixed hereto."

Exact provisions of the measure Rolph will propose were not divulged. The fact that other holidays, said days to be recognized, claimed and treated to have the same effect as other legal holidays under the laws of the state.

The measure was to be taken to Sacramento by airplane so the legislature could begin study without delay.

A system of "clearing house certificates" whereby business could carry on without great drains on banks may be worked out, according to Elliott, chairman of the legislative and taxation committee of the State Bankers' association. The certificates could be issued against collateral held by the banks, he pointed out.

"The legislation will be brief, and probably not much amendment work will be required," the Los Angeles banker declared. "We have been assured that the necessary laws may be enacted by Monday so that the banks can open up then under the proposed new system."

Safety deposits will not be affected in any way, bankers agreed.

Sixteen States of Nation on Holiday

The movement to restrict withdrawals of bank deposits spread rapidly through the south and west during the night, and today a total of sixteen states operated under emergency decrees for holidays or moratoria.

Mississippi, Oklahoma and California, Nevada, Arizona and Oregon ordered brief bank holidays to give time for legislatures to draw up legislation limiting withdrawals of deposits, and Louisiana went on further by ordering a three day holiday for all business.

Executives announcing the new holidays generally blamed conditions in other states for forcing the extension of restrictions by placing an unusual strain on banks which sought to continue business normally.

Eight banks in the District of Columbia imposed restrictions on withdrawals as an aftermath of the closing of the Commercial National bank.

In several states already operating under restrictions, business appeared to be moving back toward normal.

President-elect Roosevelt, after discussing the bank situation with William H. Woodin, who will be his secretary of the treasury, indicated that he would not issue any statement on the subject. Washington dispatches had reported pressure upon him to make a reassuring declaration before he was inaugurated Saturday.

The states in which banks had be held in Montana. Dr. Pittman said Mrs. Walsh intimated to him in a brief comment on future plans, which as yet were not definite.

Senator Walsh had been taking medicine under direction of Dr. Merzday, Daytona Beach, Fla., as prescribed there yesterday.

Dr. Pittman said he and Miss Boswell probably would accompany Mrs. Walsh to the capital. At Mrs. Walsh's request, the body was attired in the late senator's wedding clothes.

Capt. Guger, son-in-law of the late senator, now stationed at the navy base, Hampton Roads, Va., advised Mrs. Walsh he would meet her there and accompany her to Washington, where final funeral arrangements will be made. The body should arrive at Washington at 10 o'clock tonight.

Brilliant Career

Senator Walsh's death ended a brilliant legal and political career which was to have been climaxed by service in the Roosevelt cabinet as attorney general, the highest law enforcement post in the land.

Washington looked upon Walsh as one of the strongest members of the incoming cabinet as a leading figure in the senate's investigation of the Harding administration's scandals, the sombre Montana senator established a reputation as a relentless prosecutor, long before that he was known as an outstanding authority on constitutional law.

The capital also had looked forward to the return of Walsh and his Cuban bride as an event which would add to the brilliance of official society during the Roosevelt administration. The senator's marriage just a few days ago to Senora Maria Nieves Trujillo, widow of a wealthy Cuban, had been a surprise to most of his friends and they had planned many celebrations on the couple's return.

Walsh was born at Two Rivers, Wis., on June 12, 1859. His parents were poor and he earned his way from boyhood. He was graduated from the University of Wisconsin law school in 1884 and went to Montana to practice in 1890.

Twice Defeated

After some dabbling in politics, he ran for congress in 1906 and was defeated. He tried for the senate in 1910, but was defeated again. Undaunted, he ran again, was elected in 1913 and had served continuously since then.

When the oil scandals broke in 1922, Walsh went into the investigation with a persistence that was in a large measure responsible for the prosecution that followed. He pursued Edward B. McLean, the publisher, to Palm Beach and forced him to admit that he had never made a loan of $100,000 to Albert E. Fall—a loan by which the then secretary of interior had attempted to explain his sudden prosperity.

Walsh was a delegate at every Democratic convention since 1908 and had important roles in recent ones. He was a chairman of long-deadlocked Madison Square Garden convention in 1924 and rejected a move then to give him the vice presidential nomination. He was also chairman of the Chicago convention last summer which nominated Mr. Roosevelt.

SENATE ADJOURNS OVER WALSH DEATH

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(UP)—The senate adjourned for the day immediately after convening today out of respect for Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, who died today in North Carolina.

Important emergency legislation was laid aside until 9 a. m. tomorrow when the body will reconvene.

The adjournment resolution was offered by Minority Leader Robinson, a close associate of the late senator.

The house cut short its legislative day shortly before 1 o'clock and adjourned.

START MOVE TO CHANGE COUNTY WATER PLANS

The question was raised as to what taxes agricultural land lying within the city limits of the three cities would have to pay if the bill became a state law. It was pointed out that more than half the land in Santa Ana and Anaheim and more than three-fourths of the land in Fullerton is agricultural land. These lands already pay for water from irrigation or water companies, are contracted to pay for Metropolitan water and would be assessed again unless they are exempted in the new bill.

It was also brought out that as a matter of equality and justice the cost of acquisition of water for irrigation purposes should be borne by the district not including the three cities.

Representatives of Santa Ana at the meeting were Col. S. H. Finley, director in the M. W. D. and chairman of the water committee of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce; C. H. Chapman and Secretary George A. Raymer of the chamber.

To Meet Again

The group voted to hold another and similar meeting in the same place next Wednesday at 2 p. m. when the bill will be discussed again. One member from each city council in the three cities will be invited to meet with the group.

The question of what the status of cities in the Metropolitan Water District would be under terms of the new act was first brought out by George Raymer at a meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County, held Tuesday night in Westminster.

In connection with the matter, Raymer today made the following statement:

"My reaction relative to Santa Ana's stand on the proposed Orange county water district is that the city stands ready to do her part at all times in any constructive measure that will help Orange county. In fact, Santa Ana has already, through her attorney and under direction of the city council, notified the Tri-County Water Conservation association officially that the spreading of water in the upper Santa Ana river basin jeopardized and affects the legal rights of Santa Ana."

Enough Water

"Santa Ana is in the Metropolitan Water district and will, undoubtedly, have sufficient water, and perhaps more than is needed, as soon as said district is in operation. The city recognizes her obligation to the county and will do her full share in anything looking toward protection of the county from floods."

"The water conservation of the upper basin and the flood control projects are certainly things in which the city is vitally interested but any other projects in the bill should be done by, and assessed to, those that are directly benefited."

"A dam for flood control on the Santa Ana river is to the interest of all; likewise, the prevention of the spreading of water in the upper Santa Ana river basin, but the matter of determining respective rights on the river as between man and corporation inside of the boundaries of Orange county are not the concern of Santa Ana."

CERMAK REPORTED AS IMPROVED TODAY

MIAMI, Fla., Mar. 2.—(UP)—Mayor Anton Cermak of Chicago passed a comfortable night and respiration improved, his physicians said today.

He was suffering from a "peritonial condition," the bulletin said, but peritonitis had not developed. Dr. T. W. Hutson issued a bulletin revealing that Mrs. Joseph Gill, who, like Cermak, was struck by a bullet intended for President-elect Roosevelt, was still in critical condition from infection resulting from her wound.

GOVERNOR ASKS SOLONS ENACT BANK MEASURE

dore Roche, director of the department of motor vehicles.

Solons Work

Asked concerning the effect of the holiday, the governor said: "These three days ago absolutely legal holidays. However, that shouldn't give everybody the right to go fishing. They can still do their work. The partial bank holiday declared by Governor Balzar of Nevada was found unconstitutional. The only way we could handle it was by declaring a complete legal holiday."

The governor said he had been advised that the bank holiday would not adjourn the legislature. Despite the fact the three-day period was designated as a legal holiday, Attorney General U. S. Webb ruled today the legislature could meet and that any legislation acted upon would be effective.

After a conference with Webb, Joes Hession, deputy attorney general, said public schools of the state must close, according to state law.

Banks and business houses are in the same position on this holiday period as they are on the Fourth of July, Christmas and similar holidays, it was pointed out.

You can become great of soul if you determine, with God's help, to do your duty courageously and make no compromise.

DEBT HOLIDAY IS URGED AT SAN CLEMENTE

Three score residents of San Clemente and neighboring cities in a mass meeting held in San Clemente this morning adopted a resolution demanding that the state legislature declare a moratorium on mortgages, trust deeds and street improvement bonds.

It was the consensus of the meeting that the three-day bank holiday decreed by Governor Rolph was justifiable and in the best interests of the people of the state of California.

"But," the resolution concluded, "the debtor must have his holiday."

An open letter to Governor Rolph and the state legislature on the same subject was issued today by Ole Hansen, of San Clemente, as follows:

"Foreclosures must stop! 'Decent people are being foreclosed out of their properties by money sharks in California. While lenders are being helped in every way by both state and national agencies at the taxpayer's expense, many of the lenders have so far refused to cooperate to meet the emergency.

"Stop national help at once and establish strict supervision over state loan companies, or force the lenders to be human!"

"The people of California are either docile to an nth degree or are cowardly. Why should we be taxed to help the lenders when the lenders refuse to help us?"

"If a moratorium must come, let it come. The larger banks are co-operating but certain loan companies are still carrying on their policy of instilling fear into the very souls of honest people! Nine out of ten of which are more solvent than the loan companies!"

"Governor Rolph, do your duty! Put the lenders on the spot! Either make them cooperate and help California or hold them to the strict letter of the law."

"Legislators at Sacramento, do your duty! Help save the homes and farms of the people who through no fault of their own have been caught in this whirlpool of national calamity!"

"Stand up and be counted! Are you for the money sharks or are you for California?"

COUNTY AND CITY OFFICES ARE CLOSED FOR HOLIDAY

Following Governor Rolph's proclamation declaring a legal holiday until Monday, city and county offices closed this morning shortly after 10 o'clock following orders from Attorney General U. S. Webb. District Attorney S. B. Kauffman called Attorney General Webb at Sacramento this morning for advice as to whether or not county offices should cease functioning during the holiday and was informed that this should be treated as any other legal holiday. The ruling, according to Webb, applies to city government as well.

Immediately after the telephone conversation Kauffman informed all department heads of the ruling and the court house was closed. The same ruling became effective in Los Angeles at approximately the same time and the city hall was ordered closed before 11 o'clock.

In closing the court house it was announced that probate matters would be continued for one week, and the criminal calendar scheduled for tomorrow in superior court would be heard Monday, at the end of the holiday.

City Superintendent of Schools Frank Henderson said this morning that he had received no notification that the city schools must close and that until he receives such notice they will remain open as usual.

DEPRESSIONS OF PAST RECALLED IN CLUB TALK

NEWPORT BEACH, March 2.—If some method could be devised whereby every business and institution that cannot weather the financial storm would be known, so that we could have "one grand crash," the depression would be over the next day, because the country could start for some place with confidence.

That was the theory advanced by Frank J. Was, manager of the Santa Ana branch of the Security-First National bank, in a talk before members of the Newport Harbor Service club at the weekly luncheon at the American Legion yesterday.

Was said he remembered the depression of 1893 and 1894, when prices were practically as low as today, and conditions as bad in some respects and worse in others, also the short, sharp panic of 1907, which came and went quickly. The difference between all former depressions and the present one, he said, and the reason why this one has lasted so long, is the enormous debt-load of nations, municipalities, corporations and individuals.

Remembering former depressions, Was said he is not at all afraid that America, and particularly California, will not be able to weather this one. The so-called failures and bankruptcies merely bring the depression a step nearer, he said.

The Rev. Russell Stroup told of the remarkable growth of the Community church, recently built on Central near Fifteenth, and the unusual attention it is getting from other communities as well as residents of this district. This was one of a series of business

NAMES BACKERS UPPER COUNTY OF NEW WATER BOARD ORDERS DISTRICT BILL CONTROL WORK

An outline of the events leading to drafting of the proposed legislation for a new water district in Orange county is contained in a statement from E. E. Campbell, of Orange, chairman of the Santa Ana Basin Water Rights Protective association, made to the press today.

He reviewed steps leading to formation of the association and the suit which it filed against several cities, districts and the Irvine company, and the efforts to bring about settlement of differences on water matters.

The statement reveals that the proposed water district bill now up for consideration was first drafted by A. W. Rutan, H. C. Head, R. Y. Williams, attorneys for the Basin association, the first two of whom also are attorneys for the water companies; and Paul Bailey, engineer for the association; in cooperation with M. Earl, of San Francisco, attorney for the Irvine company, and S. M. Hoskins, of Los Angeles, attorney for Mrs. Susanna Bryant. "Subsequently valued advice and counsel has been given by water leaders throughout the county," the statement says, naming Mrs. Bryant; Willard Smith, chairman of the board of supervisors; Dr. D. D. Wayne, manager of Association Laboratories, Anaheim; A. J. McFadden, Santa Ana; and others.

Further expenditure of state money through matching county funds for flood control work on Cucamonga and San Antonio creeks has been authorized by the supervisors of San Bernardino county, according to word from that area.

The supervisors, at their last meeting, authorized expenditure of $45,146 of the county's money on the two creeks. This amount is to be matched by state funds and will provide work for many residents of that county.

According to information received from San Bernardino both projects have been approved by the state engineer. With this approval there will be no delay in receiving state money to match the county fund under the Swing bill.

According to R. Y. Ward, Upland, engineer in charge of the work on both streams $28,278 in county money will be expended on Cucamonga creek and $16,873 for the San Antonio creek project. The plans provide for rock walls, excavations, embankment fills and check dams and the Nineteenth street storm drain connection for Cucamonga creek.

San Bernardino county supervisors discussed Senator Ralph E. Swing's proposal to repeal his own bill on condition that only $100,000 of the state's matching fund will be ordered returned to the state treasury from the county treasury, this return to be made within 10 days after repeal of Senate bill 739 should become effective. It is understood that the repeal is suggested by Senator Swing as a move to prevent a demand for the return of the entire $236,000 of the state's money yet unmatched by San Bernardino county. The supervisors expressed a hope that the demand for this money will be delayed until sufficient Federal Reconstruction Finance corporation funds are available to enable the county to match most of the state appropriation, which originally was $400,000.

IF YOU DON'T HEAR FROM HIM...

—Here probably is the reason. Your letter may be one of the thousands of letters—mostly applications for federal jobs—that have been stacked upon the desk of Senator-elect William Gibbs McAdoo of California. He has worked at answering mail until the last minute, and will use his own plane to fly back to Washington just in time for the Roosevelt inauguration.

DEPRESSION BRINGS CHILD LABOR PROBLEM TO FRONT; CAMPAIGN FOR UNIFORM LAWS

By Rodney Dutcher

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Two-dollar and three-dollar-a-week jobs have become not uncommon and many of the workers who earn that princely wage are children.

This is one of various depression facts which social welfare workers are using this year as they campaign in the state legislatures for uniform child labor laws.

The legislators will have to dine into their ears that about 2,000,000 boys and girls under 18 years of age are now gainfully employed and that most of their jobs should be given to unemployed adults while the kids are sent to school. It will also be demonstrated to them that the depression has lowered the standards of child labor, increased the tendency to exploit children in sweatshops and increased the proportion of the least desirable jobs among working children.

The 1929 census showed more than 2,000,000 persons under 18 employed, of whom about 667,000 were under 16. There were marked declines in the prevalence of child labor in some lines, but there were increases in others and in certain sections, so that it is generally held that child employment decreases more or less in proportion with adult employment.

The conference on present-day child labor problems which met in Washington recently decided to urge a basic 16-hour employment minimum with certain exceptions, a maximum eight-hour day for adults under 18, minimum wage legislation for minors under 18 and one or two other recommendations. It is conceded that the 1929 census figures showed improvement in the child labor situation to some extent. Only 200,000 under 16 were engaged in non-agricultural occupations, a decrease of 53 per cent from 1920. The number under 16 employed in manufacturing industries had decreased 63 per cent. But it is contended that many children who would be displaced in depression will be at work when business picks up.

Additional children are being exploited for long hours at low wages, according to the Children's Bureau, because the depression has driven them into jobs that are least regulated and most subject to abuse, including street jobs, industrial home work, domestic and personal service and industrialized agriculture.

Some industries are replacing adult workers with children because the latter can be hired so cheaply. The number of 16 and 17-year-old workers in the clothing industry of Connecticut and Rhode Island increased 123 per cent and 283 per cent respectively in 10 years. There were increases of 81 per cent in New Jersey, 62 in New York and 52 in Massachusetts.

Depression sweat shops have been paying some girl workers as low as 10 cents an hour, investigators find, and in one New England city hundreds of them were earning less than $5 a week. Hundreds of workers in New Jersey contract clothing shops are averaging $2.50 to $3.50 a week, according to the Consumers' League. Miss Frances Perkins, industrial commissioner of New York state, has reported that about 35 per cent of jobs open to children under 16 are for housework and that they rarely pay more than $2.50 a week. The national census showed an increase of child

WOMAN LOST 20 POUNDS IN 4 WEEKS

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and further more I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at Kelley's Drugs, Ltd., McCoy Drug Co., No. 2, or any drug store—the most for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back—Adv.

EXPLANATION CAFE OWNER IS OF COSMIC RAY FINE $250 ON TO BE GIVEN LIQUOR CHARGE

The lecture at the high school auditorium tomorrow night by Dr. Robert A. Millikan, one of the outstanding members of the faculty at California Institute of Technology, will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

"Recent Work on Cosmic Rays" will be the general subject upon which the noted scientist will speak, and his own investigations in cosmic rays which have so interested his fellow scientists, make him an authority on the subject. While his data and conclusions are strictly scientific, his lectures are said to be couched in such simple terms that they will have a strong appeal to the layman. Magazines and the daily press have been so full of details of his work during the past few months, that Orange county readers are expected to welcome the opportunity to hear the scientist himself.

Dr. Millikan's lecture will be the first of a series of six to be presented in the local auditorium as student loan fund benefits. All will be designed to present to the layman, activities and conclusions in the field of science. Tickets for the full series or for single lectures may be purchased from any member of a local committee serving as sponsor to the venture, or may be secured at the high school ticket office on any lecture night. Prices will be kept at a very reasonable rate and special rates will prevail for all school pupils, according to Dr. Merrill W. Hollingsworth, committee chairman.

Arrested Tuesday afternoon by deputy sheriffs and federal agents, Mrs. Mary McFadden, Placenta restaurant owner, was fined $250 late yesterday afternoon by Justice of the Peace A. W. Swayze at Orange. Originally charged with possession and sale of liquor the possession charge against her was dismissed and the woman pleaded guilty to the sale count.

According to officers who took her in custody they found 12 gallons of beer, 39 pints of beer, four pints of wine and four pints of whiskey in her restaurant.

Mrs. McFadden declared she would pay her fine but was ordered held in the county jail until the fine is paid.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salt, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Recent substitute, 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Lion Hunter To Speak At School

Jay Bruce, who has the unique title of "Official California Lion Hunter," is a visitor in the city appearing in person with his picture "Cougar," now showing at the Fox West Coast theater.

At noon today he appeared before the Santa Ana Lions club. Tomorrow he speaks before the assembly at the high school and tonight is to address a group of Boy Scouts at the Congregational church here.

Where most persons would want several machine guns to use when lion hunting, Bruce has been known to climb a tree in which is perched a cougar and to lasso the animal.

HUNT MADE FOR POLICY HOLDERS

Several "lost policyholders" of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance company are being sought in Orange county and other Southern California communities according to J. Baxter Jovenat Jr., Santa Ana agent for the company.

Jovenat said that these policyholders are being sought for the purpose of paying them money due either as policyholders or heirs of policyholders.

Among those being sought, many of whom have substantial sums due them, are the following: Edith F. Frantz, Theodore Johnson, Ralph B. Schroder and Maurice A. Stenerson of Los Angeles; Tracy Abbott, Riverside; Charles J. Gunther, Rialto; George E. McClure, Chico, and Henry Mercer, Santa Monica. Persons knowing the whereabouts of the above should communicate with Jovenat.

NEW CITY ENGINEER PLANS NO CHANGES

No outstanding changes in policy were expected in the city engineer's office with the taking over of that office yesterday, March 1, by J. L. McBride, who recently resigned as city councilman from the first ward for the purpose of becoming city engineer.

The personnel will remain the same, it is understood and while McBride has a number of ideas about government of the office, the changes to be made will not cause a change in the personnel, it was said.

Pedestrian Hurt When Hit By Auto

C. E. Bowman, janitor at the Otis building, suffered severe bruises about the legs and body at 2:30 p. m. yesterday when he was knocked down by an automobile driven by S. D. Morgan, 30, of 715 South Sycamore street.

The accident occurred at Fifth and Main streets. Bowman was taken to a local physician's office and later removed to his home. He is not badly hurt.

Fullerton Youth Struck By Auto

Frank Gibson, Fullerton youth, was knocked down and injured on a Fullerton street yesterday afternoon by a car driven by R. N. Gillet, 65, of 213 East Maple street, Fullerton, according to a report filed with the California Highway Patrol here today.

The boy was taken home. He is not believed to have been badly hurt.

Half of our foreign population has resided in the United States 20 years or more, it is said.

WAGE CLAIMS BASIS OF COURT ACTION

Claims of 45 employees of the Orange County Fruit company were filed in superior court for settlement through a suit instituted by Frank C. MacDonald, chief of the division of labor statistics and law enforcement of the department of industrial relations. The suit named C. A. St. Peters and F. R. Leuchten, of Fullerton, doing business as the Orange County Fruit company, as defendants.

According to the complaint filed on behalf of J. E. Woodall and 44 other employees of the company, judgment for $3416.36 is sought on the salary claims covering a period starting July 17 and August 4, 1932. At that time the company declared it was unable to pay salaries and signed an agreement with the state to pay not less than 15 per cent of the weekly wage due the employees. On October 10, 1932, a total of $358.11 was paid the employees under this agreement, leaving the balance for which suit was filed yesterday.

LAJOIE STILL SMACKS 'EM

One of the most famous second basemen in baseball's history, Nap Lajoie, retired second sacker of the Cleveland Indians, is out to outdo Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Bobby Jones as a golfer. Here you see Nap showing perfect form after a drive on the Lake Worth, Fla., course, where he plays from 18 to 36 holes daily. After his golf game, he spends a few snappy sessions with his wife at a bridge table.

HOLLYWOOD TOO FIGURE IN '33 PENNANT RACE

(This is the first of a series of Pacific Coast league spring prospect stories.)

HOLLYWOOD, March 2.—It will hardly seem like the Hollywood ball club without Dud Lee picking 'em up on the run at shortstop and tossing out runners at first by half a stride.

Lee has left the Coast league. Arthur "Red" Killifer, coach of the Hollywood club last year, bought him for his Indianapolis club. Killifer picked one of the best defensive shortstops in the minors for his self-like infield.

In fact, "Red" raided the Hollywood club. He took Currier Jim Turner in a trade for Archie Campbell, another right-hander. And he sent Doug Taitt, late of the Boston Red Sox, to Hollywood for Marty Callaghan, fleet center-fielder.

Strange Replaces Lee That great leader, Oscar Vitt, believes that Alan Strange will eventually prove a worthy successor to Lee. He hit .277 in 25 games and fielded .894. Vitt will bring him along, if anyone can.

Jack Sherlock will be at first again with his nonchalance of manner and bobby bat. Ote Brannon is steady at second and a good hitter. Vitt eventually will get a veteran for third base, as well as a utility man.

Pitching and catching, vital to any team, always have been Hollywood's mainstays as the season progresses. This season should be no exception. Batterymen reported at the Long Beach Shell Oil park for training today, a week ahead of infielders and outfielders.

Frank Shellenback, the veteran, will lead the pitching staff. Only the major league bar against spitball pitchers has kept this great hurler in the minors. It would not be an over-statement to call him the Christy Mathewson of the minors. He has everything—and what a hitter!

Donohue on Mound Staff Pete Donohue, veteran Cincinnati hurler, will have a chance to prove that California revives tired arms. Vance Page and Emil Yde are dependable holdovers. Campbell from Indianapolis probably will supplant Turner adequately. Tom Sheehan, who pitched seven shutouts for the Stars last season, will be back. Young Perry also is available.

Johnny Bassler will head the catching staff, assisted by Henry Franks, a holdover, and Hank Patterson, Boston Red Sox rookie.

Cedric Durst is down from the big show for outfield duty. Cleo Carlyle, Al McNeely, Doug Taitt and Louie Martin complete the outfield.

Most any team managed by Oscar Vitt will be in the first division, and more than likely fighting for the pennant. The Stars will be up there this year. They were only five games below Portland last season.

Bears Aid Olympic Jaunt To No Avail

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—(UP)—The joke was on the University of California's Bears.

Donating their services for a post-season benefit basketball game with the Olympic club, the Bears not only were routed last night, 42-25, but also worked in vain. The Olympics who needed the money to go to Kansas City for the forthcoming A. A. U. tournament, decided between halves they wouldn't go after all.

Their star guards, Marshall Leahy and Carl Venti, were unable to obtain leaves of absence from their law studies.

Saints Send 21 Men To Brea Relays

12 SCHOOLS IN ANNUAL NOVICE EVENTS FRIDAY

With 10 lanes filled with a possible 400 entries, Brea-Olinda high school, under the direction of Jerry L. Bennett, head of the physical education department, conducts its annual Orange County Novice Relays tomorrow at 3:30 p. m.

Santa Ana, Orange, Tustin, Huntington Beach, Garden Grove, Anaheim, Newport Harbor and Brea will be joined this year by China, Covina, Corona and Citrus to make the most interesting, but all of these 12 schools are not expected to enter full teams.

Nothing impressive having been shown in trials at Poly field, Coach "Chuck" Webber has no idea what lies in store for Santa Ana tomorrow. He has entered 21 Saints in the eight events, and will take along a few extra candidates for emergencies.

Team Personnel Changed Experiments during the past two days of drill have resulted in several changes in the Santa Ana entry list. The major ones:

(1) Replacing Don Boyd and Bill Hawkins in the four-man 880 yard event. Larry Velarde and Ray Clark will team with Lee Hamilton and Russell Ramsdell, two of Santa Ana's best novices;

(2) Ramsdell and Hawkins, replacing Bob Kirkpatrick and Dorsey Clayton, will run in the medley with Richard Clem and Charles Ortiz;

(3) Shifted from fourth place in the eight-man mile, Hawkins will take Ramsdell's important position as anchor man in this event;

(4) Velarde and Clark will replace Boyd and Hawkins, respectively, in the four-man 440. They will team with Hamilton and Ramsdell;

(5) In the second medley—220, 440, 880, mile—Hamilton will run the 220 instead of Hawkins.

No changes have been made in the eight-man 880, the four-man two-mile or the four-man mile, with the following entries: Eight-man 880—Hamilton, Ramsdell, Boyd, Kirkpatrick, Clayton, Velarde, Clark and Hawkins. Four-man two-mile—McFadden, Colbeck, Roberts and Axworthy.

Four-man mile—Harnois, W. Bennett, Spurgeon and Holmes. Garnering 13 points, Santa Ana tied with Huntington Beach for second place at Brea last season. Fullerton won with 18.

Miller May Box Watson Or Chocolate

LOS ANGELES, March 2.—(INS)—Fred Miller, N. B. A. and featherweight boxing champion, who defeated Baby Arizmendi, Mexican titlist, easily here Tuesday night, may meet the winner of the Kid Chocolate-Seaman Watson fight here.

Promoters said today that such a bout was a possibility as both Chocolate and Watson have expressed eagerness for a bout here against Baby Arizmendi, Fidel La Barba or Casanova.

With Miller staying here, however, in hopes of landing the bout, it was believed possible one could be arranged.

Miller yesterday signed to meet Little Dempsey, Filipino, in a non-title bout at Sacramento next week.

JOHNSON LOSES JOB AS JERSEY CLUB 'FOLDS UP'

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—(UP)—Walter Johnson, that great pitcher whom the late President Coolidge once pointed out as a model for the youth of America, flashed his kindly smile last night, although a very disappointed man, and climbed aboard a Pullman bound for his home in Washington, D. C.

He could still smile, although he had been hit hard on the chin for the second time in six months.

Johnson, fired unexpectedly last October as manager of the Washington Senators, had been busy for weeks organizing backing and preparing to take over the muddled affairs of the Jersey City club of the International league.

His plan was working out smoothly. He had plenty of backing. The baseball world was prepared for an announcement that today the Johnson group had purchased the Skeeters' contract and that Johnson would be president and general manager.

But yesterday certain parties—non members of the Johnson group—withdraw their aid and the deal was unexpectedly blasted. Because of this action, it was learned authoritatively, there's virtually no chance for the Johnson deal to go through now. After losing a couple of months of valuable time, Walter is free again to look for a job. But most of the clubs are set now, and the training season has opened.

Charles H. Knapp of Baltimore, president of the International league, issued a call for a league meeting at the Hotel New Yorker Thursday to determine disposition of the Jersey City franchise. It is understood reliably that the franchise may be shifted to Providence.

BRUSHING UP SPORTS By Laufer

HOCKEY DEFIES DEPRESSION Ice Game Oudraws All Sports in Four Major Cities PROFIT-TAKING IS ADMITTED

By HENRY McEMORE (United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, March 2.—(UP)—Hockey laughs at depression.

Not only laughs, but laughs out loud, according to Frank Calder, who for 16 years has served as president of the National Hockey league.

"You don't have to take my word that hockey is holding its own better than any other professional sport," Calder said during a chat after meeting of the hockey governors here yesterday.

"Just take a look at the figures. I took a look at them recently and they showed me that in four American sports centers—New York, Chicago, Boston and Detroit—hockey was doing better at the rate than any other sport you could name. And that goes for baseball, which is supposed to be the national sport."

Did Calder attach any special significance to the fact that hockey was outdrawing all its rivals?

"Yes, I do. It can mean but one thing—that hockey, so far as the United States is concerned, has just been scratched as a popular and money-making sport. Here we are, making money when all the other sports are rocking about on their heels. And we're just about the youngest sport of all."

"Please remember that it wasn't so many years ago that there weren't more than five or six artificial ice rinks in the country, and that hockey games in New York played to less than a thousand spectators, most of them were Canadians. Now we draw packed houses all over the circuit."

We asked Calder why hockey

PICK DON TEAM FOR LONG BEACH RELAYS

Rhodes Finley, Charles MacFarland, Earl Motley and Mike Vidal will represent Santa Ana junior college in the four-man mile Saturday at the Long Beach Relays.

Southern Pacific A. A. U. championships, as the result of trials at Poly field, yesterday.

George Barry, former Huntington Beach athlete, and Mike Vidal, transfer from Modesto Junior college, will represent Coach Bill Cook's Dons in the novice jayvee.

These two candidates bested eight others in tryouts this week.

Entries previously selected include Captain Jim Daneri, open javelin, novice discus and shot put; Fred Brooks, novice century and high jump; Martin Lorenzen, novice pole vault and high jump; and Raymond Hoar, novice high hurdles.

WARBURTON ON TRACK

LOS ANGELES, March 2.—(UP)—Irvine Warburton, cotton-topped quarterback of the University of Southern California's football team, has entered the A. A. U. relays at Long Beach Saturday and will compete in the 100-meter dash.

Warburton is giving up baseball for track. During his high school days he was the state quarter-mile champion.

had taken such a hold on the citizens in the towns where it was played.

"If you've seen a hockey game you know the answer to that one," he said. "It's got everything—speed, color, action and spectacular roughness. Moreover, our unique playoff system, whereby all teams in the league are in the running until almost the last day of the season, prevents interest from lagging."

When Shaughnessy was a little boy, he was given piano lessons. He lived at Gladstone, Minn., some seven miles over the hills from St. Paul. At the age of six, Master Shaughnessy was schooled in such piano stuff as Mozart's Sonata in C Major.

He had the technique and timing then, being a concert performer when he was 10 years old. He took that timing into football!

PLAYERS CHANT At Loyola he taught his revised versions of Minnesota shift plays, and the players had to count, "one-two-three-four" and so on, just as if they were taking a music lesson. He hasn't introduced the metronome on the practice field, but gets the same effect of rhythm and timing.

It may sound a bit strange, but Shaughnessy has gone on year after year winning football games that way, beating big fellows with little lads who could keep up the tempo.

You may get a wrong impression of Shaughnessy from this idea. He is practical and vigorous. He won football immortality at the University of Minnesota by being named All-Western for all positions on the team. He played the line, backfield or puno with equal ability.

ABOUT THE OLD GRADS Shaughnessy first faces the problem of material. Then there are the "C" men, too—the old grads. Athletic Director T. N. Metcalf was a bit brutal to the "C" men in his choice of Shaughnessy for the job. They held a meeting to discuss the matter of selecting a new coach. Mr. Metcalf was sorry he could not be there.

They called him by telephone. He assured them simply that the coach already had been selected. No meeting of old grads could do anything about it. What was his name. Oh, that would be announced in due time.

An hour after the meeting adjourned, the University of Chicago announced that Shaughnessy had been named. The old grads naturally were chagrined. And chagrins in an old grad quickly turns to high dudgeon. The "C" men will be waiting to receive Shaughnessy's first with inquisitive anxiety, then with searching analysis.

Shaughnessy will be taken apart to see what makes him tick. But they will find Shaughnessy prepared to meet them. He happens to be a fellow with ideas which sounded funny before he put them into practice, but they have been ideas that worked.

SAYS IT WITH MUSIC Mr. Shaughnessy will bring the "sonata shift" to the Midway, among other things.

"My theory," Shaughnessy said in a recent interview, "is that light, fast players who have brains and use them are better than tons of beef. With split-second timing in perfect rhythm, you can use deception combined with speed which advances the ball farther and faster than all the beef can crash it. After all, a light, fast player can tackle, tangle up and throw the biggest beef that ever donned a football suit."

Tilden May Not Play In Open Tennis

MISSOULA, Mont., March 2.—(INS)—Bill Tilden and his trouping tennis mates, Nusslein, Pare and Barnes, on an exhibition tour here today, declared that they would enter the National Open tournament of the United States Lawn Tennis association—"if we are in this country."

Tilden said: "The association thinks we will come back to this country for the tournament even if we are in Europe at the time. It is mistaken. We won't."

The tennis troupe is scheduled to play in Seattle tomorrow.

NEW RACE BILL WOULD ASSIST ALL CHARITIES

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 2.—(UP)—In an effort to secure passage of a new race track measure by the state legislature, Norman W. Church, wealthy Los Angeles sportsman, has offered a plan whereby all charity would profit largely from horse-racing, it was made known today.

The Woolwine—Maloney horse racing bill, now before the legislature, will incorporate Church's ideas, which provide large sums for county charity and insure clean racing, it was claimed.

Principal amendment calls for payment of 50 per cent of net profits of all tracks to county welfare boards for a three-year period.

Other stipulations include: Limiting the number of racing days; reduction in the percentage of the mutual "take" to 10 per cent, 2 per cent of which would go to the state, and compulsory use of the totalizer, which automatically prints tickets, handles bets, regulates odds and so forth.

Another clause would place a $1200 salary limit on members of the state racing commission, to take the posts out of politics.

Church said Assemblyman Clair Woolwine had agreed to include his plan in the bill which comes before the legislature Tuesday. He said he thought Assemblyman Thomas Maloney of San Francisco, co-author of the bill also would accept the plan.

In taking the Yankees out of the Yankee stadium, I'm aware, too, that I have manfully shouldered a grave responsibility. In the first place, I must set about changing the Polo Grounds by building a third tier to the stands, so that New York's capacity for world series, big fights and football is not seriously lessened. In the second place, I shall have to set about changing human nature. Confidentially, I've been working on this idea for a great number of years now and shall be glad to report progress as time goes on.

Stoneham Was Sorry Anyhow, it was a little more than ten years ago that Charles Stoneham, a man with a heart of gold, spoke to Col. Jacob Ruppert, his Yankee tenant, just as one friend to another.

"Get out," said he, briskly, "get out of my ball park, Ruppert."

"And stay out," he added, just to make sure the point was clear.

Of course, this was only Charles's light, bantering way, of which he is well known, but the Colonel thundered human nature got out and stayed out and still is, much to Charles's mortification. Neither Charles nor his Giants has ever been the same in fact, and while doubtless he is willing to be reconciled, even to the point of going over to the Yankee stadium with his ball club, this cannot be done for several reasons. For one thing, the colonel wouldn't have them. For another, the Polo Grounds is valuable only for baseball and could not be sold for haircut money in the real estate market.

So it's the colonel, not Charles who will have to be squared the time but I guess it can be done on the basis of practical business. Politics may make strange bed fellows but only practical business can couple them on the same pillow case.

Propaganda Of Wets Attacked By W.C.T.U. Leaders

GROUP OPPOSES ROLPH PLAN TO CLOSE HOSPITAL

FULLERTON, March 2.—With representatives of all Women's Christian Temperance unions of northern Orange county present, Mrs. Eva Cravens Wheeler, state president, and Miss Mabel Smith, assistant secretary of Young People's branch, conducted a state conference at the Fullerton Methodist church yesterday. A resolution was passed, protesting the recommendation of Governor Rolph to close the State Narcotic hospital at Spadra and abolishing the state Narcotic division. Mrs. Wheeler's address on "The New Deal" was the feature talk of the session.

Mrs. Wheeler appealed to the Christians of the country to stand together, and to retain the 18th amendment, and keep the country dry.

"If the church of God would get on its knees and await the baptism of the Holy Spirit, it could redeem California. The W. C. T. U. cannot offer a new deal, but the church of God can and will save this nation. The thing that seems so terrible is that the Protestant churches alone could have held California's Wright act had they not divided," she concluded.

Mrs. Wheeler outlined the new deal as presented now by the wet forces, declaring that their propaganda is such that people are held to believe we can "drink the nation out of debt" and that it was the building that was used as a place for selling drink, rather than drink itself that is the great curse.

Trail of Vice
She said it doesn't matter just what form the liquor vending places take, but the difficulty is that wherever it is sold it will bring along its trail of vice, prostitution and gambling.

The new deal given through the wets will include such laws as are now pending in the District of Columbia that even will permit the selling of alcoholic beverages in school cafeterias, she said, and called attention to the propaganda being so powerful that the United States Congress, in face of a depression that is "horrible" with 14,000,000 men out of work, has spent the time discussing beer.

Then, is it necessary to use the two days that are particularly sacred to Christians in connection with the return of beer? she asked. "Before December, we heard we were to have beer back before Christmas, the birthday of Christ. Now the propaganda says it will be back before Easter, when we commemorate His resurrection from the dead."

Youth Movement
Miss Brown, who traveled with her companion, Miss Hoffman, before election in November, in the cause of the dries, talked on the youth movement, declaring that youth is essentially right, and that

BREA BACKS GAS TAX PLAN; LICENSE MEASURE ORDERED

BREA, March 2.—An incomplete ordinance governing the application and revision of city licenses was submitted by City Attorney Albert Launer at last night's meeting of the city council. Mayor L. A. Hogue presiding and Councilmen Schweitzer, Close, Wakeman and Baldwin present. The ordinance is based on the general 20 per cent reduction in cost, working from the minimum of $12 per annum. Following lengthy discussion in working out the sliding scale, the council instructed Launer to complete the text of the ordinance for submission at the next regular meeting.

The board endorsed a resolution pledging support to the gasoline tax program of the League of California Municipalities providing for direct allocation of a portion of the gasoline tax revenues to cities of the state as set forth in Assembly Bill No. 1172. They also pledged to oppose all other measures such as the tax program of the Automobile Club of Southern California, and resolved to give all possible publicity to the endorsed program.

Several estimates were submitted on neon signs, which the council proposes to install at the north and south entrances of the city, designating the name of the town. These signs will replace the electric signs installed some months ago by the merchants of Brea.

Supt. of Streets Fred Boxall was instructed to secure the cost of cement colored paint for repainting the ornamental light standards.

the difficulty is that such people as our political leaders have created the situation at present, and that youth is thinking and will likely find a way to solve it.

In the luncheon talks, the Rev. E. Dow Hoffman, pastor of the hostess church, drew attention to the effect of wines and beers on the individual, and after telling of the physiological effects, he declared the chief purpose for the wets to try to bring back beer and wine is to make money.

Menace On Highway
Robert Seamans of the Southern California Automobile club, said the policy of his company is to prohibit people driving while drunk, as they are menaces to others on the highways, and said that during the past year liquor cases, resulting in accidents, had increased $5 per cent, while auto license purchase has decreased seven per cent, and that California alone had recorded in the last year 153 deaths caused by drunken driving.

S. W. Smith said that he concurred with the Rev. Mr. Hoffman that the purpose of bringing back liquor sales is to provide more income to vendors, and said he would like to see the army and navy placed behind enforcement of prohibition of traffic and sales.

Whole Body Injured
Dr. Guy L. Kay, of Placentia, talked on the result on heredity of drinking beers and wines, and said the whole body and brain fiber are injured by drinking, and that injury is passed on even to the third and fourth generations in the form of weaknesses and diseases. The Rev. Francis E. Hawes discussed the effect on the homes.

At the afternoon session, the Rev. R. C. Rogers led the devotion. Mrs. Pearl Kendall Hess, state and national director of medical temperance, called attention to news articles given out by national agencies to the effect that alcohol drinking, in moderation, is beneficial to health, and read numbers of letters from physicians of note declaring that the experiment on which that story was based was purely an experiment.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG -- News Behind the News --

WASHINGTON
By Paul Mallon

JAPAN

Strong men dropped at the State Department when Japanese Ambassador Deuchl arrived with a promise that the Japs would NOT invade China proper. They agreed that made the invasion certain.

Their conclusion was no joke. Five times has Deuchl come to the department in the past year with promises. Five times they have been broken—most of them immediately. It has seemed that his promises have acted as a signal for violation of them across the Pacific.

This last one was made last Thursday. The Japs should have been climbing over the Great Wall before today under the schedule of past performances.

Mister Deuchl did allow himself something of a loophole this time by tacking on a big UNLESS. He said there would be no invasion UNLESS China threatened the safety of Japanese civilians.

You may recall that was the excuse given for destruction of the Chinese district of Shanghai last year. It is noteworthy Deuchl also promised that would not be done. He likewise promised the Japs would not attack Tsitsihar, Chinchow and had no designs on Manchuria.

American street urchins have a word for it.

This time the belief of our officials is strengthened by confidential word from their agents in the Far East. They have received no information indicating a change in the Japanese campaign which is: capture of Jehol; retirement from the League of Nations; use of the first pretext to declare war on China; invasion of China proper starting with the seizure of Peiping and Tientsin.

The work will probably be done in that order.

INVESTIGATION

Everyone made it as easy as they decently could for the National City Bank officials involved in the stock market mess.

The investigators were not animated by any love for Charles Mitchell, the bank president or his associates. They would gladly have stuck pins in them for the rest of the week. They agreed that this was not a very good time to be prosecuting or persecuting bankers or banks.

Nobody questioned their judgment. Even the more radical investigators fell in with that policy.

It was all fixed ahead of time that Mitchell should return to the stand so he could give some constructive suggestions for legislation to prevent his doing what he did. They figured that would give the hearing a constructive atmosphere and blow away the bad scent of the previous testimony about bonuses, income tax evasion and selling one's own stock short.

The rumors that some of Mitchell's many New York enemies put the committee on his trail are only partially true. The committee stumbled on the case through its investigation of the Anaconda copper pool. The enemies helped where they could.

FILED
They smoothed over that demand for an investigation of the Senate stock market investigators. It was done so quietly you may not have heard what happened.

The New York complainants were unacquainted with senatorial procedure and thought they could walk out on the floor and talk. Instead their complaint was received by Vice President Curtis in the solitude of his office. He filed it away in the back corner of his bottom drawer. It was published in the record. Everyone forgot about it.

The reason for that was the complainants lacked sufficient prestige to force their point.

PRESSURE

They put Mr. Steagall in a tight place on the Glass Banking Bill.

Some weeks ago Speaker Garner received personal word from Mr. Roosevelt that the bill must be passed. Mr. Steagall as chairman of the House Banking and Currency committee held his nose. He hates the bill. He wants a Federal guarantee of bank deposits instead. Glass will have none of that. So Mr. Steagall sat on the Glass bill in his committee for days refusing to budge.

One day last week he learned that he would not be chairman of the Banking and Currency committee next session if he persisted in his attitude. That may make a difference.

DEBTS

Mr. Roosevelt has not talked war debt terms with the British despite all you have heard to the contrary. At least that is the accredited inside word spread in both diplomatic and state department quarters here.

The President-elect's last visit with Sir Ronald Lindsay concerned only the diplomatic machinery of getting together. What the basis of trading would be was not even discussed. When and if Premier MacDonald should come was one of the main points of the conversation.

MELODY

That advice about not taking any Woodin money is stale already. As a matter of fact there will be no Woodin money until six months after he takes office. The signature of Mills will be on bills until then.

Better than plagiarisms about Woodin money are the Woodin songs now in demand. Alert music publishers took advantage of the treasury appointment to issue new copies of the secretary's obscure hits.

Verses of two songs are in circulation now. The words were not written by Mr. Woodin but the music was. The verses give you an idea of the melody. They follow:

"LITTLE WOODEN WILLIE"
"People tho't him silly Cause he had a knothole
In the middle of his head.
But he put a hat on.
And since he's had that on Those who thought him silly Think him very nice indeed."

"BLUEBIRDS"
"Oh hear the happy bluebirds
Singing in the rain
They're singing to the rainbow
Shining there again
So let us be like bluebirds happy
All day long
Forgetting all our troubles in a Sunny song."

NOTES

There was a widespread approval of Judge Bingham of Louisville as Ambassador to Great Britain. . . . Those who are acquainted with the diplomacy he exhibited in organizing the tobacco associations and in Kentucky politics during the past few years are confident he is the man to handle the war debt arrangements. . . . He will work well with Hull. . . . That relative to whom Mitchell sold his stock for tax purposes was more than a relative. . . . She was his wife. . . . The name of the new Secretary Gann's book will deal with the question of why the Republicans lost the election. . . . That could be explained fully with one word. . . . After hearing the Mitchell testimony a spectator turned to his friend and said: "Those fellows up there in New York can walk on razor blades without cutting their feet."

NEW YORK
By James McMullin

WOODIN
The more New Yorkers think about William H. Woodin as Secretary of the Treasury the less they like the idea. For a man who is well known in financial circles there is an amazing divergence of opinion as to his abilities. Of course it isn't shouted forth but the general impression is that he is not a heavy weight and is inclined to be erratic.

The appointment is generally attributed to the fact that Woodin has been Roosevelt's Raskob. Those who have Cuban connections are interested and a mite hopeful. Woodin himself has a stake in Cuban sugar and Cuban railroads.

Huey Long gets a turnaround in the pick. His statements that Roosevelt is on his side as against Senator Glass in financial matters does not fit with the selection of Woodin—conservatives in viewpoint and affiliations.

Hard-boiled leaders from other cities are asking New Yorkers: "Who is this fellow who composes music?" They label Woodin another "Yes" man for Roosevelt and think the real boss will be a first assistant picked by Col. Louis Howe.

PHILIPPINES

Homar S. Cummings of Connecticut, ex-Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, undoubtedly will be the next Governor-General of our chief Pacific problem. A first-rate man who enjoys the confidence of the Senate is said to be essential under the conditions likely to develop.

WHALEN

Whalen's friends have been told he is slated for the pleasant job of Collector of the Port of New York. This would be directly traceable to the Woodin influence. Whalen has been a useful man Friday in the past.

CABINET

Apart from Woodin, New York's reaction to the Cabinet announcements is one of mild approval. Enthusiasm and sharp criticism are equally lacking. Here are snapshot estimates of different appointments from the New York angle.

HULL: Tariff views generally approved. Known to be diplomatic and conscientious. A good co-operator.

DERN: Rated a personal choice over the protest of Party opposition within his state. Generally thought alert and intelligent. A good all-around helper.

WALSH: Integrity his outstanding characteristic. A bulldog when he gets his teeth in. New York wonders what he will do about enforcing the Sherman Anti-Trust Law. Certain corporations—especially utilities—are distinctly uneasy.

PARLEY: Master of political strategy and the best possible

choice from the Roosevelt angle as Lord High Dispenser of Patronage.

SWANSON: Also rated as astute politician and very useful in promoting good relations between White House and Senate. Navy building to treaty strength is believed assured by his appointment.

ICKES: Little known about him here. Hiram Johnson's approval is no help to New York's rating. Cermak is also thought to have had an important hand in his appointment.

WALLACE: Thought selected because he will keep the Iowa farmers from running amuck. His magazine still has a circulation of 150,000 in that state alone. His views on currency strongly disapproved but not believed to carry much weight.

ROPER: Rated, as clever a political strategist as exists between the oceans. Excellent team worker. Good organizer. Expected to slash department activities deeply.

PIERKINS: Good worker but will have tough row to hoe with Federation of Labor opposition. Tobin's appointment as Assistant not sufficient to appease Labor leaders. A steady wheelhorse for Roosevelt.

It is understood here that Hearst submitted no suggestions to Roosevelt for Cabinet nominees and that McAdoo's chief preoccupation was over Roper. The California Senator threatened to fight Woodin's confirmation if he could not place John B. Elliott, former West Coast Com. of Internal Revenue, as Sec. of Interior. He got Roper instead.

The whole list strengthens the impression that Roosevelt intends to be the boss and has deliberately chosen team workers instead of prima donnas. New York will reserve judgment until it sees what his program is. There is some relief from the specter of currency inflation.

Credit is given locally for astute recognition of political objectives—both as to geography and shades of party opinion.

To the GROCERY TRADE:

The Kraft-Phenix Cheese Corporation has placed with us a large order for advertising their famous Kraft Mayonnaise, as evidenced by the following letter:

My dear Mr. Evans:

On March 3rd the Kraft-Phenix Cheese Corporation will make an announcement of great importance to the women of your community.

A striking improvement in the method of blending Kraft Mayonnaise has prompted the largest advertising campaign for mayonnaise ever undertaken by Kraft-Phenix. A dramatic new angle on the exclusive Kraft point of kitchen-freshness is the key-note of this campaign.

Santa Ana women will learn this news first through the columns of your newspaper.

We have selected the Register for this important advertising campaign because we feel that it circulates largely among the greatest number of the people we wish to reach. Furthermore, it represents a market which is not adequately reached by any other newspapers.

Going into so many of the better homes of your community we are confident that these advertisements will stimulate the demand for Kraft Mayonnaise tremendously. The prestige and standing of your newspaper in these homes, will add prestige to the Kraft campaign.

Very truly yours,

JOHN H. PLATT

Advertising Manager
Kraft-Phenix Cheese Corporation

Again the importance of Santa Ana is recognized by one of the largest advertisers in the country.

To the grocery trade we suggest that they be ready with full stocks of Kraft Mayonnaise to take advantage of the increased business sure to follow this advertising.

County Gets $253,981 School Payment From State

NO ADDITIONAL FUNDS AT HAND FOR COLLEGES

Orange county schools have received payment of $253,981 as the second annual apportionment of state school funds, according to Ray Adkinson, county superintendent of schools.

Of the amount received in Orange county, $104,955 is the allotment for elementary schools and $148,926 will go to the high schools. Adkinson said that accompanying the allotment was a message to the effect that at present there are no additional funds available for junior colleges but that funds may be available later.

The second apportionment for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1933, totals $4,057,510 for elementary schools in the state and $6,254,470 for high schools bringing the respective totals to $20,862,808.78 and $7,874,635 for the entire year.

Apportionments are based on the average daily attendance of the schools, or $5.94 per unit of attendance in elementary schools and $23.92 per unit for high schools.

WATER SYSTEM MEETING SET FOR LA HABRA

LA HABRA, March 2.—In accordance with their agreement with the American States Water Service company, members of the La Habra city council at a special meeting held Wednesday evening arranged a meeting between the engineers, J. B. Sancks, and C. P. Harnish of the water company for the purpose of going over the appraisals of the present system in La Habra.

The consulting engineers, Koebig and Koebig, of Los Angeles, who have been working on this appraisal for the city, presented their final report to the city officials at a special meeting Saturday evening and the city immediately sent a letter to the water company making an offer of $89,020.18 for the complete water system plus the water stock, asking for a reply within five days.

Sometime ago the water company offered to the holding in La Habra to the city at the total price of $125,000, for purchase under the $100,000 water bond issue of the city.

Water company officials have expressed a willingness to have their engineers meet with the city in an effort to adjust the difference in the appraisals by the two.

ARRANGE TOUR OF WINDBREAKS FOR NEXT WEEK

A second field tour to study and observe the benefits of windbreaks has been arranged by the Agricultural Extension service, in response to many requests since the recent winds. The tour will be held in the Orange and Villa Park districts next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, starting at the W. W. Perry orchard, located on Collins avenue about one-fourth mile east of Tustin avenue. This location is about one mile north and one mile east of Orange.

C. A. Palmer, president of the Foothill Farm center, and Holmes Bishop, chairman of the citrus department of the Orange County Farm bureau, are co-operating with the extension service in pointing out the value of windbreaks in exposed areas. They urge the attendance of all growers who are interested in the planting or management of windbreaks for orchard protection.

Farm Advisor Harold E. Wahlberg will be in charge of the field tour. Several stops will be made to study various types of breaks, including eucalyptus, cypress and artificial wooden breaks.

Some of the phases of windbreak management that will be discussed will be type of seedlings, varieties, distance in the row, distance from property lines, root cutting, fertilization and irrigation of windbreaks. Influence of height and effect on quality production will also be reviewed by the farm advisor, who collected considerable data on windbreak protection in Orange county.

DINNER OBSERVES 89TH ANNIVERSARY

TUSTIN, March 2.—The 89th birthday anniversary of J. H. Brown was pleasantly observed Tuesday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Brown were hosts to a group of relatives and close friends in their home on Pacific avenue. The home was a veritable flower garden, filled with many baskets of carnations, roses, sweet peas and other flowers, which had been presented to Mr. Brown that afternoon at a reception given in his honor by Sedgwick Women's Relief corps in the Santa Ana Pythian hall.

Included in the three-course dinner served at 6:30 o'clock were two beautiful birthday cakes, baked by Mrs. R. H. McArthur and Mrs. Howard Nason. Place cards were written for the Rev. and Mrs. Howard Nason, of Tustin; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Pickering, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McArthur and Miss Inez Hickman, of Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Pickering and son and daughter, James and Betty, of Fullerton, and the hosts.

The evening was spent with jig-saw puzzles and admiring the many birthday gifts received by the honor guest, who is commander of Sedgwick post.

WHERE BLAST LEVELED GERMAN CITY

Only desolate debris-littered ruins were left in Neunkirchen, industrial center of the German Saar district, when the cameraman flew over the site where a terrific gas-tank explosion made shambles of a city. The thunderous detonation broke windows for miles around, and was heard throughout the whole Saar district. Rows of two-family dwellings near the tank were leveled, and whole families were found in them, dead. Note the crowd of mournful townspeople sorrowfully picking through the ruins of the leveled buildings. More than 60 bodies were found. One thousand persons were seriously injured.

COMPROMISE ON IRVINE WATER ACTION LOOMS

Intimations made recently that the suit of the Irvine company filed in federal court against 16 cities and associations in the upper Santa Ana basin may be settled, were given strength this morning when it was learned that C. R. Browning of the Irvine company is in San Bernardino and has been there since yesterday. At the Irvine company it was said that Browning will not return until Monday.

The Irvine company filed suit in federal court several months ago against the upper basin defendants seeking to enjoin them from further spreading and conservation works under the so-called Sonderger plan. The injunction was sought on the grounds that such work jeopardizes Orange county rights to water from the Santa Ana basin. Hearing on the injunction is scheduled in federal court for March 6.

Negotiations pointing toward a compromise have been in progress for several weeks with both parties to the litigation reported as indicating their willingness to compromise in the interest of economy. Officials of the plaintiff company have been quoted as saying that as long as Orange county water rights are safeguarded they are willing to drop the action.

Tuesday night at a meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce Browning said that there is more than a possibility that the suit will be settled in a friendly manner between the Irvine company and the upper county defendants.

BOARD REJECTS SUGGESTION ON TERM CHANGES

Efforts of Dr. Margaret Baker, member of the Santa Ana board of education, to revise the system of electing school trustees in Santa Ana failed Tuesday night when a majority of the board voted against adoption of the proposed change.

Under the plan proposed by Dr. Baker school board members would, starting in 1935, be elected for five years, after election classifying themselves a set terms in order that one member be elected every year. This plan was proposed for the purpose of assuring continuity and stability of the board in conducting school affairs.

Pointing out that the law should go before the state legislature immediately to secure enactment of legislation amending election laws for cities of the fifth class, Dr. Baker moved for adoption of the plan after a lengthy discussion on this and other proposals.

The vote on the proposition stood W. M. Burke and Dr. Baker for the proposed change and Rolla Hays and M. B. Youel opposing it. Chairman Wells cast the deciding vote against the proposal.

Hays said that he voted against the proposal as he wanted more time to consider the matter and said that during prior discussions he had favored it. During the past few days he said that he had heard protests against the proposal on the basis of extra expenditures for election each year.

Under the proposal of Dr. Baker the elections would be held separate from the political election. She pointed out that the cost of the election could be reduced to a minimum by utilization of P. T. A. members as election boards.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KIM

Through great, big trees the Tinies walked. For quite a time nobody talked. Then Scouty said, "I'm frightened, lads. Where can poor Duncy be?"

"He fell asleep to sleep till dawn. Then, suddenly, the lad was gone. Just why he left, our daisy tent's a mystery to me."

"All we can do is move along. If our direction is not wrong, we're sure to find him, shortly," answered Windy, with a frown.

"I understand why you're upset, but we can't give up all hope, yet. If he is hiding in a tree, I hope he topples down."

"You see, I do not think it's fair to give us all this awful scare. We're lucky, that the lightning bugs are giving us their light."

Just then the sun rose over a hill, which gave the Tinymites a thrill. "You lightning bugs can go now," Scouty said. "We'll be all right."

And so the bright bugs flew away. Said Copy, "Gee, I'm glad it's day. Once more I'll call for Duncy. There's a chance that he might hear."

This time wee Duncy heard his name and right up to the punch he came. "Where have you been?" snapped Windy. "Why, you filled us all with fear."

"Don't fret," said Duncy. "I'm all right. You see, I woke up in the night and heard a funny sound. I wondered what it was. And then I jumped up from the ground, deciding I would look around. It didn't take me long to find out what produced the buzz. A little locust you can see, and he's as busy as can be. He's sawing little twigs up and he never stops to rest."

"I asked him what the twigs were for and, as he saved a whole lot more, he said that he was making them for Mrs. Robin's nest."

NOTE THE SPIRIT AND WORK OF THE UNEMPLOYED ASSOCIATION

The other day we took luncheon with the unemployed at the old Willard junior high school building. This is supplied to the regular workers of the Unemployed association, and probably 75 or 100 persons were eating. There were vegetables and bread and meat. The vegetables and bread were collected here and there, and the meat is furnished daily by the Ministerial Union of the city.

The men were an earnest, conscientious group, concerned for the future, but grateful for the co-operation of those who are a little better situated than themselves. They had an esprit de corps that was remarkable. In a way these men, who had lost all, were less worried than those maybe who are trying to save what they have. But there was an undercurrent of feeling that some real change would have to be brought about to give them their chance.

As we sat there and talked with these men, and visited the building, and saw the remarkable work that is being carried on by the Unemployed Association, we wondered if the people of our city and county appreciate what this has meant, not only to the unemployed themselves, but to the people of the county.

The Unemployed Association came out of dire necessity, when the large number of unemployed were released by the county welfare department a year ago. It developed into an organization of self-helpers. Their work has not only become well known in our city and county, but the news of its value has reached beyond the borders of the county, and even beyond the borders of the state, and we have had visitors here to examine into the work that has been done in Santa Ana and Orange county. Foods have been collected; picked up shares by the unemployed; exchanged from one group to another for their mutual benefit. Surpluses have been canned. From the standpoint of the taxpayer, there have been many thousands of dollars saved, together with the fact that a better spirit has developed than would have been under any other circumstances.

We would like to emphasize to the people of the county that there has been a wonderful work carried on by this group, and they have had the co-operation and helpful support of leaders who deserve great credit at the hands of the people of our community.

A year and a half ago, Mayor Knox appointed the first unemployment committee of the city, and this committee in turn raised considerable funds, found jobs for many and aided materially in the support of hundreds of families in Santa Ana during last winter. When the Unemployed Association in the city and county were carrying on their great work, it was seen that they were doing possibly a more significant work than any group could do outside of themselves. In harmony with this idea Mayor Witmer, in his reappointment of the committee for the unemployed, inaugurated a program whereby the Unemployment Association took over the work of the unemployment committee as well, leaving the unemployment committee of the city in an advisory and supervisory capacity.

This committee, headed by J. S. Smart, has been doing a wonderfully co-operative work with the Unemployed Association. Mr. Smart, as chairman of the committee, is at headquarters every day, and through this committee, there is being furnished that supplementary aid which has been the difference between not enough and enough. There is a recognition on the part of this committee, and the unemployment association leaders, of the inadequacy, in any large sense, of what already has been done, and of the terribly impending greater need, as the money in hand of the committee is almost gone. This must be replenished. It is to be hoped that some arrangements may be made to help this committee, possibly through the Welfare department of the county, as they have applied for Federal aid.

But we want to express publicly the thanks of the community to Mr. Smart and his committee and to the leaders of the Unemployment association, for their faithful and wonderful work.

A NECESSARY STEP

California has joined the states with bank holidays. We believe the intelligent business people of the state were positively relieved when this was announced. California is in as good, if not the best condition of any state in the Union but the transaction of business with the East, and the fear, born of the knowledge of what was happening in the East, insured the necessity of acting in the interest of our whole financial, business and industrial structure, which was done.

Many forces have contributed to our present situation. But undoubtedly one of the chief of these, if not the chief one of them, has been the fact that banks have been forced to restrict credit to all people, regardless of whether the people had property, or even whether they were making money. This was due to the fear on the part of the bank that the depositors would withdraw their money from the bank to a greater degree than they already had done, and place it in deposit boxes, and that this money, which was asked for, the borrower could not return instantly, and hence the bank had to restrict the credit.

This, multiplied millions of cases over the United States, has caused even those who are still solvent, and doing business, to restrict their buying and restrict their expansion, and in turn it has operated for strangulation all the way down the line. With the moratorium granted to the banks and some discrimination or even mandatory powers placed upon them, restricting the amount to be paid out to depositors within any given period, it will enable the banks to know how much they can and cannot loan. And it actually will be the means of increasing credit, and may be the means of insuring the beginning of an upturn.

As a man said to us yesterday: "If I thought all the depositors were going to leave their money in, I would be willing to leave mine in the bank, because I know it is safe, if they all have faith." Well, the law operating universally to insure that they shall all act on that principle, will insure the safety and thereby insure the deposits. This will give freedom to the banks to extend reasonable credit, which in turn will start business, which will insure increasing values for real property and securities.

We should rejoice that this necessary period is now being passed through. It inconveniences many of us. We do not see just how all matters are going to operate tomorrow or the next day. But remember that we are "all in the same boat," and all understand the situation with the other fellow. Out of it will come relief, greater freedom, confidence, credit and better business. We had expected that it would have to come through the guarantee of bank deposits. It may take this form eventually. But limiting withdrawals and guaranteeing future deposits may accomplish the same end.

It had to get worse, in a way, before it got better. And very shortly we will find, owing to this procedure through which we are passing, confidence will return. Out of its hiding place will come buried money, because people will know that it is safe, and they will want to get returns on their money.

The Bank Holiday

By Loyal K. King

Banks throughout California are closed today and will remain closed for the next three days. It is generally expected that they will then open under better and more happy circumstances.

Under the circumstances it would seem that the best that can be hoped for is that they will open on condition that only a part of the deposits can be withdrawn during any one month, this proportion varying according to a bank's condition.

Criticism of Banks and Bankers will be general; most of the criticism will be due to the fact that people will not understand the fundamental reason for their closing; many others will choose to ignore the economic reason for their closing, finding it easier to criticize so long as they are uninformed.

But the plain facts are that as money and credit has been getting harder and harder to get; more and more people have looked to the banks for money on which to live. Real estate and business have for some time past ceased to earn a return on their investment and people whose property has ceased to earn have turned to the banks and withdrawn their savings and deposits.

Now a bank can only repay its depositors in proportion as the people to whom it has loaned money can repay their loans. The reason that banks cannot remain open is that the people to whom banks have lent money cannot repay their loans. The investment that the banker has made may be sound and safe but in as much as it cannot be converted into cash in a few hours or even a few months these banks find themselves unable to pay out to their depositors all the money that is demanded of them. The result is that the bank has to suspend business, or limit its business. The banks, fortunately, in Santa Ana and Orange county have been very free from this extreme necessity.

During the last three years the banks have been in the unenviable position of calling in their loans at a rate they never anticipated, and at a rate that past experience would indicate they never would be called upon to do. In a large measure banks have had to call loans faster than the private lender. The private lender can extend a note if he does not need the money for necessities but a bank has had to insist on payment because the depositors were demanding their money. Bankers used to enjoy the enviable position of loaning money and helping worthy credit risks to advance toward a position of economic independence and wealth. For the past three years they have been in the position of demanding funds from people who had invested in property and business, and to the extent that the property or business could not repay the loans out of profits they have been in a position of imposing hardships on the very people they had hoped to help. As a result bankers occupy the unenviable position of being criticized for conditions largely beyond their control.

As state after state declared a legal holiday, money was taken from those states which still were open for business and these funds were used to conduct the business of those states where banks were already closed. The marvel is that banks in any state are still open for business.

It seems that in the end there can be but one solution to the situation. The federal government will have to guarantee bank deposits, at least such as will be made in the future, or we shall be forced to do business on a cash basis. Since ordinarily only a fraction of the total business of the United States is done on a cash basis the hardship of such a program is almost beyond conception.

It often happens that conditions must get into an almost hopeless state before the strong will permit economic remedies to be applied, hoping that by withholding the remedies they can reap unexpected profits; but it seems that conditions have now reached a condition where if the strong will continue to deny the proper remedies they will find a new banking structure created that will deny to them the profits they had hoped to make out of the stress of the present circumstances.

Far from feeling discouraged it appears that hope and sustenance and practical relief now lie close at hand.

More Truth Than Poetry

HOW WE HAPPENED TO BE

Had the Romans and Greeks understood the dangers of malaria they might still be ruling the world.

The Caesars today might be lords of the earth.

Had they known that the tremulous arias

The mosquitoes emit

As they flutter and flit

Were the warning of lethal malarials.

But, feeble in science, though mighty in arms,

Through swamps and morasses they waded,

Exposed to the bites

Of these venomous mites

Till their visions of conquest had faded.

We should likely, I'm told, be the slaves of the Greeks—

A lot one could hardly term joyous—

If we had not found out

That the fly spreads about

The germs which delight to destroy us.

These hard fighting folk would be still playing hob—

No power on earth could have licked 'em.

They were all going strong

Till the germs came along.

And defied the whole bunch to evict 'em.

That today we are not still harassed and oppressed,

But can set all our foes at defiance—

That unfettered and free

And untroubled are we,

We owe to the wonders of science.

That we do not bow down to the sword and the spear

We can credit, in part, to our own heads,

I'm convinced, on this sphere,

Still we should not be here.

If those pagan lads hadn't been boneheads.

Thoughts On Modern

WILL THE FARMER GO COMMUNIST?

These are colorful, even if depressing days in many farming communities.

The farmer shows a mood of resistance to the inroads of depression.

Determined bands of farmers surround the drama of mortgage sales and make it clear that they will not permit a neighbor's farm to go for a song to the passing bidder.

With a threat in their eyes they forestall the outside bidder and themselves bid the farm in for a song and hand it back to the farmer who is attempting to win through on it.

Is this a harbinger of a communist revolt among farmers?

I know many Americans who are gravely disturbed by the possibility of such a farm rebellion.

A little quiet thinking will dispel this fear.

The farmer the world round is the least open to revolutionary appeals of any of the varied classes.

The steel-willed Stalin is having his troubles in trying to make communists of the Russian peasants.

In Russia as in the United States the farmer is a confirmed individualist.

It takes infinite effort to get the American farmer to surrender enough of his individualism to make effective cooperative organization and action possible.

On all counts the American farmer is today suffering because he is too individualistic.

When American farmers mob a mortgage sale it is not because they are headed toward revolution, but because they are determined to protect the basis of their old individualism.

The farmer, for all his determined fight against dispossession by the forces of depression, is one of America's biggest bulwarks against revolutionary movements.

This is why the most stabilizing thing leadership can do just now is to bring a crystal intelligence and boldness of action to bear upon the farm problem.

THE SCHOOL LIBRARY

The school library is an essential part of every school plant. This room ought to be set apart for the enjoyment of books. It should be a pleasant room, cheerfully and effectively furnished with comfortable chairs and tables and all the books the place will hold.

And, of course, a good librarian.

Books are the tools of education. Unless children read they cannot enrich their minds. They cannot possess the knowledge and the culture that the best men and women of all time have written between the covers of their books and left for each succeeding generation to enjoy. If it were not for books we would be centuries behind where we are in cultural power and intelligence itself.

Often children ask questions that their fathers and mothers and teachers cannot answer. Often, too, they want to search along certain lines for information because they are deeply interested in them.

There is no time, there are not enough informed people free to give time and knowledge to such children. That is what books are for. The child can take a book from the shelf and get all he needs to know by the simple act of reading it.

Children read for pleasure. Pleasure is as necessary to a child's growth as duty. The most potent hand in hand or the child will cease to grow. I know of no finer pleasure one can offer a child than that he finds between the covers of his books. He slips off into a new world with a devoted friend. Their minds go together and there is perfect communion between them. The child laughs and cries and thrills as the book tells its story to him. He goes through various experiences that lift him out of himself and out of his everyday surroundings.

That too, is essential to the healthy growth of a child's body and mind.

School is the place where books are at home. School is the place where the child's mood calls for books. School is the place where a child should be trained in the use of books and in the habit of reading.

Every child ought to be assigned a period of library reading a day. The librarian ought to be prepared to receive each group and to supply the children with the books they like best, or those they need most. This training will enable them to know about books as reference works, as information sources, as pleasure experiences. If a child can read intelligently he can educate himself by reading the right books. He can become a cultured, well informed happy man or woman because he has the best the world has to offer at his hand.

We build beautiful schools but too often we neglect to equip them and man them for service. The library is left out, forgotten, and the library ought to be the heart of the school. It is quite as important as the teams and the kitchen and the shops. It is the soul of them all.

And the librarian is the center of life in the library. She reaches every classroom, supplements all the teaching, accents the fine points in each subject and leads the children to know beauty when they meet it. Can you think of any place you would rather have your children than seated in the school library reading a good book? Is there such a place for him, and if not, how soon can you make one?
